LCA CAMP DESCRIPTION

The LCA March Break Camp is a 1 week program intended to help new artists explore various genres of performance art and find their unique talents. It is also intended to help experienced artists hone their skills while also learning new ones on the stage, backstage, behind a camera, or in the director's chair.

Artists will experiment with acting, directing, clowning, improv, filming, video editing, photography and more. We want our artists to develop a well rounded set of skills to help make their creative ideas come to life.

CAMP GOALS

1

Foster creativity

2

Explore new genres

3

Build Self-confidence

4

Form lasting memories & friendships
